) DECLARATION OF VAN BUNCH
) FILED ON BEHALF OF BONNETT, ) FAIRBOURN, FRIEDMAN & ) BALINT, P.C. IN SUPPORT OF ) PLAINTIFFS' APPLICATION FOR ) AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES ) AND EXPENSES/CHARGES AND ) SERVICE AWARDS

I, Van Bunch, declare as follows:

1. I am a shareholder of the firm of Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint, P.C. (“BFFB”). I am submitting this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ application for an award of attorneys’ fees and expenses/charges (“expenses”) and service awards in connection with services rendered in the above-entitled action.

2. This firm is counsel of record for Plaintiffs.

3. The information in this declaration regarding BFFB’s time and expenses is taken from time and expense printouts and supporting documentation prepared and/or maintained by the firm in the ordinary course of business. I am the shareholder who oversaw and/or conducted the day-to-day activities in the litigation and I reviewed these printouts (and backup documentation where necessary or appropriate) in connection with the preparation of this declaration. The purpose of this review was to confirm both the accuracy of the entries on the printouts as well as the necessity for, and reasonableness of, the time and expenses committed to the litigation. As a result of this review, reductions were made to both time and expenses in the exercise of billing judgment. BFFB has reduced or removed hours spent wherever that time seemed administrative, duplicative or too lengthy, resulting in reductions to time billed totaling approximately six percent. As a result of this review and the adjustments made, I believe that the time reflected in the firm’s lodestar calculation and the expenses for which payment is sought as set forth in this declaration are reasonable in amount and were necessary for the effective and efficient prosecution and resolution of the litigation. In addition, I believe that the expenses are all of a type that would normally be charged to a fee-paying client in the private legal marketplace.

4. After the reductions referred to above, the number of hours spent on this litigation from inception through May 31, 2019 by my firm is 2,980.7. A breakdown of the lodestar is provided in Exhibit A. The lodestar amount for attorney / paralegal time based on the firm's current rates is $1,238,420.50. The hourly rates shown in Exhibit A are the usual and customary rates set by the firm for each individual.

5. From inception through May 31, 2019 my firm's total expenses in connection with the prosecution of the litigation are $214,585.87. These expenses are summarized by category in Exhibit B. Examples of such expenses are:

(a) Transportation, Hotels & Meals: $36,824.38. In connection with the prosecution of this case, the firm has paid for travel expenses to take depositions, attend an oral argument, meet with plaintiffs' counsel and experts, and attend a mediation. The date, destination and purpose of each trip is set forth in Exhibit C.

(b) Filing Fees: $3,314.00. During the course of this litigation, BFFB has paid pro hac vice fees for its attorneys and the subsequent annual renewal fees. The date, vendor and purpose for each expense is set forth in Exhibit D.

(c) Photocopies and Printing: $815.26. In connection with this case, the firm made 542 in-house copies and printed 1,880 pages, for a total of 2,422 pages, charging $0.20 per page for a total of $484.40. Each time an in-house copy machine or printer is used, our billing system requires that a case or administrative billing code be entered and that is how the 2,422 copies were identified as related to this case. My firm also paid $330.86 to outside copy/print vendors.

(d) Online Legal and Financial Research: $1,645.24. This category includes vendors such as Pacer and Westlaw. These resources were used to obtain access to court databases, legal research and for cite-checking of briefs. This expense represents the expense incurred by BFFB for use of these services in connection with this litigation. The charges for these vendors vary depending upon the type of services requested.

6. The expenses pertaining to this case are reflected in the books and records of this firm. These books and records are prepared from receipts, expense vouchers, check records and other documents and are an accurate record of the expenses.

7. The identification and background of my firm and its attorneys is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 7th day of August, 2019, at Phoenix, Arizona.

ABOUT THE FIRM

Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint, P.C. is an AV rated firm of 20 lawyers. Our clients include many individuals and local businesses, as well as major national and international companies in a wide range of civil litigation in both federal and state courts.

The firm has developed a recognized practice in the area of complex commercial litigation, including major class actions and is widely regarded as the preeminent firm in Arizona representing plaintiffs in class action proceedings. Over the last twenty years, the firm has successfully handled more than 100 class action lawsuits. We have represented consumers and victims in a wide range of class action proceedings, including actions alleging antitrust claims, securities fraud, civil rights claims and consumer fraud.

Our antitrust practice includes the prosecution of class claims on behalf of direct purchasers of products as well as indirect purchaser claims. These antitrust cases include, among others, class actions against Microsoft, MasterCard, Apple Computer and sellers of products such as polyester and rubber chemicals, waste management services, financial products and other industries. In addition to our class action practice, the firm also has represented plaintiffs in individual litigation asserting antitrust claims, including Culligan International.

Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint has taken a leading role in numerous important actions on behalf of consumers and investors, and we have been responsible for many outstanding results that have yielded dozens of multi-million dollar recoveries for class members in Arizona and throughout the United States.

PRACTICE AREAS

CLASS ACTION

Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint represents consumers and investors in major class action cases in federal and state courts throughout the United States. Under the direction of Andrew S. Friedman, the firm's class action section represents plaintiff classes in the following areas:

Securities Fraud: Protects institutional shareholders and individual investors from corporate fraud and mismanagement.

Consumer Protection: Protects consumers from defective products and fraudulent marketing practices.

Antitrust: Protects individuals and businesses from price fixing, unfair business practices and other anticompetitive conduct.

Civil Rights and Employment: Protects employees and consumers against unfair practices and racial, age, gender, and other forms of discrimination.

Insurance and Health Care: Represents victims of fraud and unfair sales practices by life insurance companies and HMOs.

Tobacco: Seeks redress for fraudulent marketing of "Light" cigarettes as a less toxic version of "Full Flavor" varieties.

False Claims and Whistleblowers: Provides for awards to individuals who uncover false claims for payment submitted to the federal government.

SECURITIES

Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint has extensive experience in plaintiffs' class action securities cases in and out of the State of Arizona. Its attorneys have recovered substantial verdicts and settlements in various high-profile cases representing bondholders who have suffered significant losses due to the criminal activities of individuals in the securities and banking industries, including victimized investors in the Lincoln Savings scandal.

APPELLATE LITIGATION

Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint has extensive appellate experience at all levels of the state and federal court systems. Attorneys from the firm have appeared before the Arizona Court of Appeals, the Arizona Supreme Court, and numerous U.S. Circuit Courts. Decisions to appeal a matter are not made lightly by the firm; we carefully analyze the likelihood of a positive result for the client against the potential cost of an unfavorable outcome. Although we draw on the clerking and practical experience of many of our attorneys in making this analysis, a fully informed client is always an integral part of this process.

VAN BUNCH is a firm shareholder. Mr. Bunch's practice focuses on class action and mass tort litigation. He has represented clients in class litigation involving breach of contract, federal and state securities laws, federal and state RICO actions, deceptive insurance sales practices, environmental pollution and other consumer protection claims.

Recently, Mr. Bunch participated in the successful resolution of Good, et al. v. West Virginia American Water Company in the United States District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia. The case arose of a spill of hazardous chemicals into the local water supply of Charleston, W.V., shutting down access to drinking water for some 225,000 residents and thousands of businesses. Mr. Bunch served as lead counsel in the case and worked all phases of the litigation up to the eve of trial, when the parties struck a settlement. Before that, Mr. Bunch steered In re Mingo County Coal Slurry litigation to a successful conclusion, a case in which over seven hundred West Virginians received compensation for physical injuries, including wrongful death claims and the establishment of a medical monitoring program to help promote earlier diagnosis and treatment from the health effects of alleged exposure to coal slurry in their water supplies.

Mr. Bunch served as trial counsel in Smith v. American Family, a case involving the use of imitation crash parts in repair estimates for consumers in the state of Missouri, which resulted in a unanimous jury verdict of approximately $30 million in March, 2007. The case paid tens of thousands of Missourians full compensation, with interest, for their losses.

Mr. Bunch also served as trial counsel in Lebrilla v. Farmers Insurance Group in Santa Ana Superior Court, which settled following a complete bench trial in 2006 resulting in readjustment of auto property damage claims for Farmers' insureds nationwide following settlement.

Mr. Bunch served as trial counsel for the investor class in In re American Continental Corporation/Lincoln Savings and Loan Securities Litigation, MDL 834. The recovery achieved for investors, after several years of highly adversarial litigation and a months-long trial, exceeded $250 million.

Mr. Bunch served as Co-Lead counsel in the MDL proceedings of In re Polaris Aircraft Income Fund, which resulted in a settlement valued at approximately $110 million.

Mr. Bunch also litigated a series of cases involving the sale of so-called "vanishing premium" life insurance policies, including cases against Prudential Insurance and MetLife, which alone returned over $3 billion to defrauded policyholders. Other cases included actions against New York Life, John Hancock, Equitable of Iowa, American General and others. He litigated Manners v. American General Life Assurance Company in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, which involved the sale of so-called "industrial" life insurance policies and alleged race discrimination in premium setting. He served as local counsel for the Class in the indirect purchaser anti-trust action against Brand Name Prescription Drug makers in Davidson County (Tennessee) Circuit Court, which returned over $7 million in prescription drug benefits distributed through community health centers throughout Tennessee.

Mr. Bunch served as co-editor of the Class Actions and Derivative Suits Subcommittee of the ABA Section of Litigation newsletter. He actively participates in pro bono work, including Tennessee's "On-Line TN Justice" resource. He also served on the Signal Mountain, Tennessee Planning Commission and is a Board Member of the Tennessee River Gorge Trust.

Mr. Bunch received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Vanderbilt University in 1979. He received his law degree in 1984 from the George C. Taylor School of Law at the University of Tennessee, where he earned membership in the Order of the Coif. Mr. Bunch was admitted to the Bar in Arizona in 1984, Tennessee in 1996 and West Virginia in 2007; he is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona, U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee and U.S. District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia.

Mr. Bunch was associated with Evans, Kitchel & Jenkes, P.C., a large Phoenix law firm from 1984-1986. In 1986, Mr. Bunch joined Bonnett, Fairbourn, Friedman & Balint, P.C., where he became a shareholder in 1989.
